Congratulations...

Cleaning up the Oceans!

Congratulations to the Dutch non-profit, The Ocean Cleanup and Maersk for their outstanding effort to clean up the biggest mess on planet Earth, the world's largest accumulation of ocean plastic debris located 1,200 nautical miles off the coast of California! As reported by Eric Haun, web editor of MarineLink.com, the first-of-its-kind floating ocean cleanup system is undergoing a final round of testing before it begins removing plastic pollution from the Great Pacific Garbage Patch halfway between Hawaii and California.

Museum World Rejoice!

Congratulations to CSI's Nelson Young and team for developing the Perfect Fit™ Transporter 101. The new system simplifies delivery, streamlines unwrapping and unpacking and virtually eliminates time-consuming set up which plagues the museum world. An innovative, aerospace-inspired front wheel and four lockable swivel casters provide superior maneuverability even in narrow or close confines, making it ideal for moving and storing the world's great masterpieces for future generations.

Plugged In!

Congratulations to Power Resources International (PRI) on the launch of their new website at priinc.com. Founded in 1992 by Joe Diurno and Victor Ancelson, PRI's unique combination of state-of-the-art technology and rich applications expertise enables them to deliver the best and quickest resolution to virtually any automation problem. Site designed by A.J. Schmitz.

Car Wash Anyone?

Check out the new enterprise website designed and developed for Autocare Network at AutocareNetwork.com. The new mobile-friendly site has the Ferrari of back-end databases. Designed and developed by PMG's leading web technicians, this site is as clean as a new car wash and has an engine that goes from 0 to 60 in no time! Autocare was created to help consumers keep their cars clean, and the organization has quickly become the region's premier name in car wash membership programs. Ever get a free car wash from a car dealership? Chances are pretty good that it was delivered by Autocare.
